

Part 2: Good Corporate Governance

Independence of the Board of Directors and Definition of Independent Directors

1. The Board of Directors must be neutral, not be influenced by the control of executives or management or a group or juristic person because the Board of Directors is the representative of shareholders who select in order to protect the interests of all shareholders.
2. The Board of Directors should have leadership, vision and independence in making decisions for the best benefit of BSG, and all shareholders. The Chairman must be able to control the operation of the executives or management effectively.
3. The Board of Directors should provide a clearly separation of roles and responsibilities between the Board of Directors and the management.
4. Maintain the balance of power within the Board of Directors, so all directors can express their opinions independently. Therefore, the composition of the Board of Directors shall consist of executive and non-executive directors.
5. The independent directors are able to access the financial data and business information adequately in order to provide opinions independently and preserve the benefit of all shareholders and company.
6. The independent directors must have the independent qualifications in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Commission as well as other qualifications are required. For the composition and appointment of independent directors, the Board of Directors will fundamentally consider the qualifications of a person who will be appointed as an independent director with the qualifications and disqualification of directors under the Limited Public Company Act, law on the securities and exchange, Notification of the Capital Markets Supervisory Board, as well as relevant notifications, rules and/or regulations. Moreover, the Board of Directors will consider and select an independent director who is qualified, expertise, competent, and use other appropriate elements for additional consideration, and then propose such matter at the shareholders' meeting for further appointment. Thus, the company has a policy to appoint the independent directors at least 1/3 of the total number of directors, which consists of not less than 3 persons.
